

Support Worker

Far North Community Services is a local provider of disability services in the Kimberley region of Western Australia. Our offices are in Broome, Derby, Kununurra, Halls Creek and Fitzroy Crossing; however, we deliver services all across the Kimberley region and are currently establishing services in Halls Creek.

We currently have Casual and Part Time Support Worker roles available across the Kimberley and would love to hear from you if you have a genuine interest in working with individuals who have a disability.

The primary role of a Support Worker is to work in partnership with individuals and their families to achieve the goals identified in their NDIS support plan.

What will you be doing?

A Support Worker role is varied however may involve assisting with personal care and daily living including personal care and hygiene, social support, domestic assistance including cleaning, shopping and meal preparation and community participation.

A Support Worker builds a positive and supportive relationship with the person they support, enabling the person to reach their goals and be actively involved in the community. This may require assistance with mobility using hoist and communication devices.

Are you the one?

- You will be friendly and caring
- Understand that people are faced with real challenges
- Be reliable and dependable
- Enjoy being part of a team committed to supporting people to achieve and thrive
- You will have a current National Police Clearance less than 3 months old or be able to obtain one
- You will have a current Drivers Licence

If you are interested in working with Far North Community Services, we would love to hear from you. Please email your resume to recruitment@farnorth.org.au